Home to the Toledo Walleye hockey team and the host of world-class tours and shows, this downtown Toledo structure boasts 17,000 square feet of meeting space, an area that can hold up to 8,000 people for general session and 750 people for a chic banquet. Additional meeting space includes 20 private suites and a club level lounge — perfect for small, more intimate banquets — and catering services are offered on site by one of the area’s best, AVI Food Service. The building is one of the nation’s first LEED-certified sports arenas, just one sign of Toledo’s focus on environmentally friendly building construction.
