Toledo isn’t just a great place to visit. It’s the perfect hub for exploring the entire region!

By Jason Brill

DAY TRIPPER
African Safari Wildlife Park, Port Clinton, Ohio
Get in touch with your wild side at this popular attraction, which features drive-thru and walk-thru safari experiences, and the chance to spot dozens of animals including bison, camels and alpacas.

DAY TRIPPER
Cedar Point, Sandusky, Ohio
Catch all the thrills on Cedar Point’s roller coasters including the Millennium Force and Steel Vengeance. The famed amusement park has only gotten better with age. (It turned 150 in 2020!)

DAY TRIPPER
Sauder Village, Archbold, Ohio
Take a trip back in time at this living history village, museum and farm. Shop, eat and explore what life was like in Ohio during different historical periods including a replica of a 1920s-era Main Street.

DAY TRIPPER
Lake Erie Islands, South Bass Island & Kelleys Island, Ohio
Live like an islander (or at least pretend to for a day) by visiting Put-in-Bay, Kelleys Island and more. Hop on the Jet Express from either Port Clinton or Sandusky to discover hiking trails, crystal caves, water sports, local seafood spots, live music and wineries.

See More
Toledo’s close proximity to Columbus (2 hours, 25 minutes), Cleveland (1 hour, 50 minutes), Sandusky (1 hour) and Port Clinton or Archbold (50 minutes) means exploring other Ohio cities and towns is a quick car ride away so you can experience even more of what the state has to offer. Visit Ohio.org for statewide travel ideas.
NOW is the perfect time to discover art in the Glass City, as the International Year of Glass 2022 is upon us! This is sure to be an exceptional year for remarkable visual and performing arts as well as many glass-related events and exhibitions in and around Toledo.

By Madeline Anderson
Pop of Color

Bring a little color into your day discovering one of Toledo’s many public artworks. Drive or boat past the new Glass City River Wall, an amazing mural transforming ADM’s grain silos into the largest mural in the country. The wall showcases the city’s dedication to the arts and urban renewal, while telling the story of its rich and vibrant cultural history. Artist Gabe Gault describes its depictions of sunflowers and Native women as honoring the significance of the indigenous peoples of the land. Other murals and public art can be found throughout the city thanks to the Arts Commission, dedicated to fostering Toledo’s art heritage. Ten new murals have been completed in the last year alone!

During chillier days, duck inside to peruse the galleries of a city icon: the Toledo Museum of Art. It’s a community-driven museum — always free to the public — with a global reputation where you’ll find something for everyone: paintings, decorative art and sculptures from all over the world along with special exhibits, a family center, art classes and guided tours. Don’t miss the Glass Pavilion, housing the museum’s impressive collection of glass art from ancient to modern times and featuring regular glassblowing demonstrations.

Bring a pop of color home with you by trying your hand at your own creation. Gathered Glassblowing Studio, Copper Moon Studio and Firenation Glass Studio and Gallery specialize in different techniques and offer private or public workshops. A glassblowing experience also makes a wonderful gift idea.

Center Stage

Get inspired by live performances all year long! The Valentine Theatre offers a variety of musicals, family-friendly shows and choral performances, including collaborations with the Ballet Theatre of Toledo. Experience today’s most popular musicals at Stranahan Theater, such as the award-winning “Hamilton” and other fan favorites. Toledo Opera’s season includes performances from awe-inspiring talent as well as educational programs for all ages.

The Toledo Alliance for the Performing Arts unifies and promotes the Toledo Symphony, Toledo Ballet and Toledo Jazz Orchestra, often bringing them together for epic collaborations. The Toledo Symphony offers orchestra performances as well as special performers. The Toledo Ballet performs its annual and longest-running performance of “The Nutcracker” in the country and offers classes for all ages, abilities and styles of dance.

Find more live performances from Toledo Repertoire Theatre and the University of Toledo Center for Performing Arts, as well as a wide range of live music all around Toledo at local bars and restaurants.

Ask the Artist

Muralist Chilly Rodriguez

How does Toledo inspire your work?

The people, the energy of Toledo, it’s all very inspiring to me. I also find a lot of inspiration in the Metroparks. And our museum is world-class quality. Toledo is this little hidden gem.

What values do murals add to the community?

Toledo is really on the come-up, specifically in the arts scene, the mural scene and overall, too. I think it just uplifts people’s spirits and attracts a lot of people to your city. The big reason why I like to paint is, if you’re having a bad day and you come across a colorful, vibrant mural, it’s going to lift your spirits.

What kind of stories do you try to tell through your own artwork?

I’m really big on positivity and overcoming your obstacles. I had a pretty crazy upbringing, and I overcame all of that. So that’s what I try to show people — no matter what, if you put your mind to something and your heart into it, good things can happen.

Do you have any recommendations for your favorite spots?

The art museum, the parks and local art like the murals downtown — you can go through different streets and come across a lot of great artists and really good murals. So many great things are happening in this city.
Whether you’re searching for the perfect lunch with friends, a quiet coffee shop, a bustling brewery or a memorable dinner out, the Toledo region’s dining and craft beverage scene offers it all!

By Nicholas Dekker

What’s on Tap?
Sign up for the 419 Ale Trail to explore dozens of breweries throughout Toledo and northwest Ohio’s 419 area code. Visit Earnest Brew Works’ downtown Toledo taproom, relax at Twin Oast Brewing’s rolling estate, taste IPAs and elevated pub grub at Two Bandits Brewing Co., or sample small batches from The Laird Arcade Brewery. You can even follow up your afternoon bike ride or hike with a beer tasting at the new HEAVY Wheelhouse at Oak Openings Preserve Metropark.

Plant Power
Toledo restaurants offer plenty of plant-forward eats. Try the Feta-Felicitous crepe at Crepe Delicious or a tofu scramble or seitan reuben at The Leaf and Seed Cafe. Build your own Condado Tacos with veggie chorizo or barbecued jackfruit. Customize bowls and tacos at Balance Pan-Asian Grille with lentils, tofu and greens from their aquaponics farm, Balance Farms. Taste vegetable spring rolls, wakame salad and veggie stir fry at Rayoka Japanese Steakhouse and Sushi. Toledo’s own Tiger Bakery & Deli has been serving up the best hummus, salads, soups and vegetable falafels since 1971.

TASTE OF Toledo

On the Go

Keep your eye out for Toledo’s dynamic food truck scene. Beastro Burger Truck dishes out towering cheeseburgers, while Smashdawgz gets creative with classic chili dogs and the zesty Ay Chihuahua. Big C’s Barbeque serves slow-smoked barbecue like ribs and pulled pork, while Grumpy’s on the Go bangs up favorite sandwiches and salads right to you.

Caffeine Craze

Toledo’s coffee shops will keep you plenty caffeinated. Black Kite Coffee’s beautiful Old West End shop serves up Toledo’s own Flying Rhino Coffee. Maddie & Bella Coffee Roasters features two locations to enjoy espresso, cold brew and tea. SIP Coffee has long been a gathering point with great coffee and light breakfast. Grindhrs Coffee & Community offers terrific coffee and a welcoming space for all, while BREW coffee bar keeps the University of Toledo area charged.

Around the World

Travel the world without leaving Toledo! Tandoor of Toledo has been delighting visitors with rich curries, crispy naan and tender chicken since 1982. Souk Mediterranean Kitchen & Bar serves up unique and flavorful dishes like wild boar Bolognese, braised short ribs and butternut squash ravioli. Treat yourself to Greek-inspired dishes, fresh seafood, free-range chicken and veal chops at Georgio’s Café International. Gather your friends at The Blarney Irish Pub for traditional Irish fish and chips, boxties and a pint of Guinness.
CELEBRATE EVERY SEASON

Sunny, rainy, warm or wintry — there’s always something to keep you busy in Toledo, no matter the weather outside.

By Jamie Rhein

SPRING

The National Museum of the Great Lakes offers a fascinating look at history from fur traders to the Underground Railroad, rum runners and more. Get fully immersed in the region’s past at Fort Meigs: Ohio’s War of 1812 Battlefield where interpreters in period clothing perform weapons demonstrations, then explore the visitor center that includes a museum and unique gift shop.

At Imagination Station, there’s hands-on fun to be had by everyone. Build an air car, encounter a hurricane, create a light show and experience an in-depth science demonstration. The museum’s KeyBank Discovery Theater transports visitors on a journey of exploration and discovery through state-of-the-art technology and an expansive 58-foot wide, 4K screen.

Anglers get ready! Each spring as the temperature rises, thousands of walleye head upstream to spawn along the Maumee River during the Annual Walleye Run. Toledo’s reign as the Walleye Capital of the World is well earned, as the Maumee River is home to the largest population of migrating walleye east of the Mississippi.

SUMMER

Take advantage of the glorious summer weather at a Toledo Mud Hens minor league baseball game. The Triple-A affiliate of the Detroit Tigers has been knocking ‘em out of the park since 1896. Schedule a time to hop aboard The HandleBar Toledo — a pedal-powered bar bike — for a tour to some of downtown Toledo’s hottest bars.

Get an early start and tee off at local favorite Heather Downs Country Club or enjoy picturesque views of Lake Erie at Maumee Bay State Park Golf Course. Grab a paddle and kayak and enjoy the scenery along the Maumee River Water Trail that connects 39 natural areas, including seven Metroparks Toledo locations, then kick back and settle in for a big screen double feature at the 1950s style Sundance Kid Drive-In.

Plan your trek and load up the car in August for the annual Toledo Jeep Fest, which celebrates Toledo’s part in producing this iconic vehicle. Before you head home, stock up on fresh, local produce or pick up home-baked goods for the road with a stop at the Toledo Farmers’ Market. Since 1832, the farmers’ market has featured local growers, producers and crafters peddling their wares straight to consumers.
FALL

Don your midnight blue and gold as you cheer on the University of Toledo Rockets football team at the Glass Bowl Stadium. Book a brewery tour on the 419 Brew Bus or Swig Ohio Shuttles, which stop at multiple locations serving up locally brewed pints and other craft beverages.

Take advantage of harvest’s bounty at MacQueen Orchards, which grows 16 varieties of apples. Stop in the apple barn and cider mill for seasonal vegetables and baked goods. At Country Lane Tree Farm, venture into the pumpkin patch to pick your own then wind your way through the corn maze. For more maze mania, head to Fleitz Pumpkin Farm. Be sure to shop the huge variety of pumpkins and gourds and enjoy a hay ride.

Still can’t get enough of fall? Salute the season with delicious food, live entertainment and street vendors at the Grand Rapids Applebutter Fest and Sylvania Fall Festival.

WINTER

’Tis the season for the Toledo Walleye hockey team’s action-packed games at Huntington Center, with plenty of family celebrations planned for the entire season. Splendor and awe are in store at the Toledo Zoo & Aquarium’s Lights Before Christmas, aglow with one million twinkling lights and 200-plus illuminated animal images, an ice slide, a holiday train and more.

Bundle up and lace up your skates to slice the ice at Ottawa Park’s outdoor rink or test out your skates at the indoor rink at Tam-O-Shanter. For more winter thrills, Metroparks Toledo and Maumee Bay State Park feature boast-worthy sledding hills.

Stay warm and cozy with a local museum visit. The world-renowned Toledo Museum of Art, National Museum of the Great Lakes, Toledo Firefighters Museum, Toledo Police Museum and Heritage Sylvania give plenty of options for indoor discovery. On Sundays, stop by the 1850s Lathrop House, a notable stop along the Underground Railroad.

Friends of a Feather

Northwest Ohio isn't coined the Warbler Capital of the World for nothing! Each spring, thousands of warblers and songbirds stop over on the northwest shores of Lake Erie to refuel before heading north to Canada. Birders from all 50 states and beyond flock to the Biggest Week in American Birding — held each May — to witness this amazing spectacle. Visit biggestweekinamericanbirding.com for all the details.

Discover the new Great Lake Erie Birding Trail by signing up for your free digital mobile passport. Then start your birding adventure by visiting select birdwatching hotspots in Lake Erie’s parks and wildlife areas throughout northwest Ohio, southeastern Michigan and even Canada! Use your smart phone for mobile check-ins that will track your progress as you explore the region’s birding meccas.
